Under New Jersey Law, an Equestrian Area Operator is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine animal activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine animal activities, pursuant to P.L. 1997, c.287, C:5:15-1 ET SEQ.
A participant shall submit a written report to the operator setting forth the details of any accident or incident as soon as possible, but in no event longer than 180 days from the time of the accident or incident.

The Clinic Participant agrees that they participate in the Dominique Barbier Clinic fully aware that horse sports and activities involve inherent dangerous risk of serious injury or death, and by participating they expressly assume any and all risks of injury or loss, and they agree to indemnify and hold John and Leslie Pettenati, DBA: Daystar Farm and its owners, employees, agents, the clinic instructor, and all clinic organizers and volunteers harmless from and against all claims, including any for injury or loss suffered during, or in connection with the clinic, whether or not such claim, or injury or loss resulted, directly or indirectly, from the negligent acts or omissions of said owners, officials, employees or agents of the clinic instructor or the clinic organizers or the volunteers.

Facilities will be provided for storage of tack and other personal property of the Clinic Participant. Such facilities are to be used at the Clinic Participant's own risk. Daystar Farm is not responsible for any items of personal property kept at the Clinic Location. Loss due to fire, water, theft, or any other reason is the sole responsibility of the Clinic Participant.
